

Butterfly program – Nicole Wilson

A few years ago when the SRP theme was bugs, we got monarch butterfly caterpillars for some of the library branches. They were kept out on the info desk and each day the kids could come in and watch as it turned into a butterfly. It was a really cool hands off program. All the branch staff had to do was remember to feed the little guy...